

HIGHLANDERS ARE HOME AND READY FOR FRAY

Griff's Hopefuls in Fine Trim and Fully Fifty Per Cent. Better than Last Year—Play Providence Club on Heights This Afternoon.

BY ROZEMAN BULGER.

Looking the picture of health, the players of the New York American League baseball team arrived in Jersey City shortly after 7 o'clock this morning, after having spent five weeks in the South, where they went through a course of hard training for the coming baseball campaign. They were headed by Manager Clark Griffith, who is confident that his team will make a better showing in the race this year than they did last season. "Griff" was all smiles when he stepped off the train in the Pennsylvania depot.

"I am glad to get back again to Gotham," said Manager Griffith, "as both my men and I are anxious to get into the game. Although we encountered some miserable weather in the South, we nevertheless had the good fortune to get some good weather, which enabled the team to round into better shape than I thought they would. All the new players have shown up remarkably well in their work. I think I have a find in young Laporte. This youngster is fast on his feet, can pick up grounders with lightning speed, and besides is a splendid thrower and can hit the ball for keeps."

Baseball at both parks is the menu for New York fans today. The Highlanders, returning from their Southern training trip, show themselves to Manhattan for the first time at American League Park in a game with Providence, the same club so grossly and completely defeated by the Giants yesterday.

Griffith comes home with a club which he expects to be an important factor in the race for the American League pennant. After a season of disappointment, he has got together a club which, at least 50 per cent. stronger than that of last year.

Chase, Newton, Orth and, in fact, all the pitchers are in excellent condition, and the team as a whole is ready for championship work. The new men whom Griffith will introduce to New York are Laporte, Morphy, Delehanty, Hughes, Whalen, Keefe and Thomas. Laporte has already established himself as a better pitcher than any of the others. But they are here now, and you can look them over for yourself.

SMITH BOWLED BIG SCORE IN DEFEATING VOORHEIS

Jimmy Smith defeated John Voorheis last night at the Amphion alleys, Brooklyn, in a series of seven games, rolled in the Greater New York individual tournament, and in such a decisive manner that there should be no further question as to the merits of the two bowlers.

At the Superba about six weeks ago, and on freshly planned alleys, Smith defeated Voorheis in a match of best six out of eleven games in which Smith won in only eight. Since that time the argument has frequently been heard that cast doubts on Smith's pretensions to championship honors. This is now settled by scores made last night, for while the games were rolled on Smith's home alleys Voorheis never had a "look in" for the money.

In the seventh and last game of the best six out of eleven series Smith had eleven straight strikes and was "ouched" on the twelfth ball his score being 291. The fifth game was a hummer. Smith rolled a score of 273 and Voorheis 251. The scores:

Smith—212, 177, 291, 212, 273, 204, 297. Average, 223.

Voorheis—188, 211, 178, 203, 227, 193, 211. Average, 205.

"Red" Allen, one of the leaders in the tournament, lost a series to P. J. Riddell at the Grand Central last night. The defeat was all the more sensational, as Riddell is the tallest player in the tournament, and Allen is the shortest.

The full scores: Riddell—194, 235, 190, 212, 190, 231, 184, 200, 194. Average, 194. Allen—194, 190, 187, 211, 224, 210, 211, 200, 193. Average, 194.3.

At the Hudson Circle alleys John Koster defeated Jamie Watt in six straight games, the former rolling a high game score of 253. The full scores: Koster—159, 211, 234, 208, 215, 253. Average, 205. Watt—173, 167, 222, 183, 192, 165. Average, 183.4.

Linden and Koster will roll a postponed series at the Hudson Circle alleys. The game on the Greater New York is scheduled for the evening following. The series is between Linden, Helms and Smith, Brooklyn, and Watson and Allen, Universal, Watt vs. Heller, Alden.

Matches at Superba. Two sectional match contests were rolled at the Superba alleys, Brooklyn, last night in which Cooper beat Oliver and Heller defeated Riddell. Both series were best six out of seven games.

Cooper—189, 185, 190, 204, 210, 170, 180, 190, average, 189.4. Oliver—170, 160, 170, 140, 205, 182, 170, 197, average, 173.4.

Heller—190, 180, 200, 170, 201, 200, 208, average, 192.6. Riddell—165, 140, 190, 183, 194, 194, 190, average, 178.

Metropolitan Championship. For a hard contest with lots of enthusiasm on the side, the series in the Metropolitan championship at the Metropolitan, One Hundred and Fifty-second street and Eighth avenue, tonight, should be a corker. The Buffalo and Metropolitan are scheduled in this series and the scores are expected.

"Big Six" Championship. By a margin of 145 pins the five-man team from the Morning Newspaper League won the championship of the "Big Six" from the team in the P. B. Franklin League. Two series of three games each being rolled with total pins to count in the first series. The Grand Central home alleys of the Ben Franklin, the visitors won 1120 pins, and in the final series at Metropolitan alleys the Morning Newspaper team, although losing two of the three games, were only nine pins behind the visitors.

Arrangements are being made for a third contest on neutral alleys. The Ben Franklin believing that they can beat their lively opponents under such conditions. In the second

What Ails This Watch?

At first glance you might think this watch was lost and was crying for some one to find his owner through a World "Lost and Found" Ad., but such is not the case. This watch is a "well"—an expensive affair and has been strutting up Fifth avenue. But imagine his chagrin when he found himself advertised in The World's "For Sale" columns marked down to half price. Wouldn't That Make Any Watch Mad?

MIKE DONLIN NOW A BRIDEGROOM

Giants' Outfielder Weds Miss Mabel Hite, a Kansas City Actress.

Mike Donlin, the Giants' outfielder, is now a bridegroom sure. Several times since the beginning of the year the rumor of Donlin's wedding has been circulated, but not until last night did the event really take place. The happy bride of the ball tosser is Miss Mabel Hite, once a star in "The Girl and the Bandit" Company, and hailing from Kansas City, where, it is declared, "Mike" first cast admiring eyes upon the graces of the pretty actress.

They were married last night by Alderman Griffenhagen at the latter's residence, in Harlem. The Altman had just finished dinner and was on the point of receiving several constituents when an automobile containing the ball player and his bride-to-be, with their friend, Billy Gilbert, the Giants' second baseman, landed up in front of the house.

"I want to see the Altman. They say he is good at tying marriage knots. I want to be married. Here is the woman in the case," and "Mike," for it was himself that spoke, introduced Miss Hite. The Altman summoned his daughter Madeline, who acted as a witness with friend Billy Gilbert. Then Donlin pushed a bunch of greenbacks into the hand of the Altman, and carried off his bride, waving away in the auto, smiling like a kid with a new toy.

Incidentally the marriage of Donlin at diverse times and places has frequently been reported of late, but last night's ceremony, Griffenhagen declares, was binding and genuine.
